ADVERTISEMENT,

To the PUBLICK.

THE CRAFTSMAN having in his laſt Paper, in a Manner the moſt unprovoked, unprecedented, and unjuſtifiable, committed the greateſt Outrage on ALL the Gentlemen inhabiting the Pariſh of St. George, Hanover-Square, for having elected Churchwarden a Gentleman not only of an antient Family and Eſtate, but a Benefactor to that Pariſh, who is under no Incapacity by the Laws of his Country to hold any Office whatever, who concerns himſelf with no Affairs out of the Verge of private Life, nor reflects on any Man's Character, nor ſolicits any Man's Diſgrace, but hath in this Election taken a Burden on Himſelf, in Purſuance of an Agreement made amongſt the principal Inhabitants of this Pariſh, at the Time of opening their Church, that they would ſerve Pariſh Offices themſelves, to prevent the Admiſſion of Perſons of mean Condition in a Place inhabited by ſo many Families of the firſt Quality: This flagrant Inſtance of the Spirit and Deſign of that Paper, deſerves the Notice and Reſentment of every Man in Britain, who muſt ſee, from this and other Paſſages of the ſame Nature in the Craftſman, that he thruſts himſelf on all Occaſions into the minuteſt Concerns, even of Domeſtick Life, and diſturbs the Peace of private Neighbourhoods, in Matters which do not at all belong to Publick Enquiry.

THE Author of this Perſonal and Infamous Libel is guilty of greater Proſtigacy in pretending to ground his ſcurrilous Abuſe on a Vote of the laſt Houſe of Commons, which cenſured the Perſon concerned, with others, as a DIRECTOR of the Charitable Corporation: For, had this Gentleman been the greateſt Agent and Abettor of the moſt execrable SOUTH-SEA SCHEME, and dipt his Hands in the Corruptions of that ever odious and moſt ruinous Fraud, He would even in that Caſe, tho' diſabled by the Laws, and purſued by the Curſes of the whole People, have had the Craftſman employed for more than a Month together, in defending Him, not merely from the Scandal of a Vote, and the Ignominy of an Expulſion, but from the Judgment of the whole Legiſlative Power, and the INFAMY inflicted by an ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

WHILST I was conſidering what could be the poſſible Motive for ſuch an inhuman Procedure as this in the Craftſman, I recollected that the BROTHER of the Gentleman thus inſulted appeared in the laſt Seſſion on the Side of the Country Intereſt, which, with a Party of their Morality and Gratitude, is doubtleſs a proper Incitement to abuſe the whole Family.

SENECA.

SIR,

YOU muſt, no doubt, have obſerved, that the ſame Fate has attended both Parts of the Conſtitution; we have been terrified with ſimilar Repreſentations of the ſad Condition of our Religious as well as Civil Liberties. The additional Securities acquired by the happy Revolution and Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Rights and Liberties of Engliſhmen, as well as to the Eſtabliſhment of this Proteſtant National Church; theſe valuable Acquiſitions, the Pleaſure and Glory of the true Patriots of the laſt Age, ſome daring Spirits of the preſent Generation have ventured to leſſen and depreciate. They, who are acquainted with his Hiſtory, will not be ſurpriſed, that one certain Perſon ſhould paint thoſe Methods in odious Colours, which are the Reverſe of his Conduct, when Power, to the inexpreſſible Hurt of his Country, was for a little while lodged in his dangerous Hands. 'Tis ſomewhat more ſurprizing that People, who appropriate to themſelves the Names of Whigs and Proteſtants, and treat the real Friends of Liberty, as Enemies to all Freedom, that theſe People ſhould join in the ſame Cauſe, proclaim his Merit, and unite their Reputation with that Man, who, if Providence had not interpoſed, would ſoon have accompliſhed the Work he made great Progreſs in, compleatly deſtroyed the Liberties of his own Country, as he had treacherouſly ſacrificed thoſe of her faithful Allies. This, Sir, is that ingenious Gentleman, whoſe Writings are applauded, in ſome weekly Productions, publiſhed under Pretence of recommending a Scheme of Whiggiſm. His Merit, as we find it ſtated in one of theſe Papers, is what has not yet appeared in any Part of the Kingdom, 'That the Tories ſeem now to be 'THE MEN, who are to preſerve theſe Sentiments '[popular Notions of Liberty] from ſinking into Obſcurity, and to tranſmit them down entire to Poſterity. 'Nor has a late ingenious Author, who has wrote on 'the Subject of Parties, contributed a little towards 'this good Effect on ſome Men's Minds. Independent London Journal, N° 3. What Honour too great, what Station too high for this ingenious Man, who has deſerved ſo well of his Country! A moſt delightful Creature, a perfect Pater Patriæ! To his wonderful Ingenuity 'tis owing, that the Principles of Liberty are tranſmitted down entire to Poſterity! But let us hear another of his Friends; for you muſt know, it is a Point much laboured to raiſe and ſupport this ruined Character. You will find it attempted, Old Whig, N° 9. 'The Newswriters inform us, that the late Lord B —— is ſet out 'for France. —— There has been one good Effect of 'his Writing, that the Tories, who were his former 'Friends, are come much into the popular Notions of 'Liberty; and the old Doctrines of the Divine Authority 'of Princes, and of abſolute Submiſſion to them, which 'they, conſidered as Sacred, ſeem NOW totally diſcarded by them. —— But 'twas impoſſible by any 'thing he could ſay, by the moſt artful and delicate 'Addreſſes and Apologies, to reconcile the People to 'himſelf: The Remembrance of the Part he was 'SUPPOSED to have in the Adminiſtration, in the 'latter Part of the late Queen's Time, was not to be 'removed.'

DOES any County in the Kingdom produce any Number of theſe Changes? Are not the ſame diſtinguiſhing Healths, the ſame ſtrain of Converſation ſtill kept up? Amidſt all the pretended popular Notions of Liberty, do we yet hear from theſe new Converts, one favourable Word for our great Deliverer King William, whoſe Memory muſt be for ever dear to the REAL Friends of Liberty? But among the Principles ſaid to be totally diſcarded, why do not theſe Writers add the moſt material and fundamental Article, the Doctrine of abſolute Hereditary Right? THIS, and this only, is the Point of Conſequence, not the Meaſure of Obedience, Submiſſion, or the Degrees of Power that are, at preſent, aſſigned by this ingenious Writer, his new or his former Friends, to the Crown, as it ſubſiſts upon the Revolution. What does it avail, that the Doctrines of the divine Authority of Princes, and abſolute Submiſſion, are NOW diſcarded? The ſtronger the Attachment to the Point of Hereditary Succeſſion is, the more will theſe Doctrines of Authority and Submiſſion be NOW diſregarded.

THE Return theſe Nominal Old Whigs are pleaſed to make for this undiſcoverable Service by the Author of the Diſſertation on Parties, is very remarkable; 'The Remembrance, ſay they, of the Part he was 'SUPPOSED to have in the Adminiſtration in the 'latter Part of the late Queen's Reign, was not to be 'removed.' Suppoſed to have had? Writers, who can ſuppoſe Him innocent, may ſuppoſe who they pleaſe guilty; but let them know, that their Cenſure will be Praiſe: Commendation from thoſe, that magnify his Merit, a Proof of Guilt. Pens that can ſoften and palliate the Crimes of this Man, can never blacken the Reputation of any other. 'Tis an effectual Diſgrace to their Cauſe, when, joined with ſuch an Ally, they vainly attempt to calumniate the moſt conſiſtent Proteſtants, and the trueſt Friends to civil and religious Liberty.

THE beſt and wiſeſt Part of the Nation juſtly reſent the unparalleled Abuſes, equally void of Decency and Truth, that have for ſome time paſt been offered to a Reverend Prelate of great Merit as well as Diſtinction; one, who for more than forty Years, in an uninterrupted Series of uniform Conduct, has appeared upon all Occaſions, and at all Junctures, an Enemy to Tyranny and Perſecution, and as ſuch, a conſtant Friend to the Revolution and Proteſtant Succeſſion; always oppoſing the Meaſures of thoſe, whatever Order or Character they bore, who oppoſed theſe happy Settlements; one heartily attached to the Church of England, as judging it, in itſelf the beſt Conſtitution, moſt conducive to the Benefit of the Nation; and the ſtrongeſt Bulwark againſt Popery; with this juſt Preference to the eſtabliſhed Church, conſtantly zealous for the Toleration of Proteſtant Diſſenters; warmly oppoſing, againſt the then Stream of Power and then Courſe of Preferment, every Infringement of the Toleration, when ſuch Infringements were attempted; and afterwards with great Weight and Influence, aſſiſting in the Repeal of thoſe Laws that broke in upon the Toleration; one who has at all Times given the greateſt Aſſiſtance to the Friends and Cauſe of LIBERTY, where that Aſſiſtance has been of moſt Service and Importance; thus uniformly ſteady, under very uncommon Inſtances of Ingratitude from ſome, who call themſelves Friends of Liberty; and (what is leſs unpleaſant to encounter) the warmeſt Reſentment of an oppoſite Party.

'TIS ſurpriſing to obſerve what low Arts of Scandal are employed to blacken a Character that can't be hurt by real Truth.

ONE Mr. Watſon has been lately perſuaded by certain Writers to publiſh himſelf in the Old Whig, as a Monitor to this Reverend Prelate, and proclaim to the World that he is Author of one of thoſe Letters, which continually come in great Numbers, from unknown Hands, to all the conſiderable Perſons in the Kingdom, and ſometimes have the Favour to be read. But Mr. Watſon, it ſeems, muſt be treated with more Regard, and the Publick muſt be once and again alarmed, if the LAWS of the Land are not broke thro', to obey his irregular Commands.

ARE Mr. Watſon and his Friends ignorant, that the Forms of Law muſt be obſerved either in putting down or putting up any thing new in a Church? If the Picture complained of in Clerkenwell Church, be contrary to Law, or has been illegally put up, a legal Preſentment ſhould be made, or a Citation prayed againſt the ſuppoſed Offenders in fixing it there, that they may be compelled to appear and ſhew Cauſe, if they can, why the Picture ſhould not be taken down, and themſelves ſubject to Cenſure for illegally placing it in the Church. But where is this to be done? Not by a Biſhop in a private Manner in his Study, but in the COURT which the Law has appointed for the Cognizance of this Matter, and others of the like Nature. What a Stretch of Authority would it be reckoned, if, without obſerving the Forms of Law, without citing the Parties on both Sides, or having had a Cauſe regularly before him, a Biſhop, making himſelf both Party and Judge, ſhould give a definitive Sentence, and iſſue out an Injunction? Even a Monition, Cauſa inaudita, is illegal, and upon Appeal, which lies in the Caſe, muſt be ſet aſide, and the Author of that Monition condemned in Coſts. We have of late heard much of Proceedings and Oaths Ex OFFICIO, but this recommended by Mr. Watſon's Friends would have been ſuch an arbitrary and illegal Step, as would not have eſcaped the ſevereſt Reproaches, from thoſe very Perſons who now adviſe it. The Law has regulated the Power of Biſhops; and in the Exerciſe of that Power the Forms of Law muſt be obſerved. If Mr. W. and his Friends really deſire to have the Picture removed, and did not ſolely intend to raiſe an Odium, they will immediately take the legal, i. e. the only Method for removing this Picture. Or if Mr. W. and his Abettors think it criminal, becauſe the ſame Perſon will not take upon him to proceed in a private Manner, making himſelf Party and Judge, but chuſes the Cauſe ſhould be determined in a legal Way, where Complainants and Reſpondents are fully heard; If this be, in their Opinion, criminal, the Law is open; they may have Redreſs, and ought to appeal, ob denegatam Juſtitiam, to a higher Court, as they may do from every Epiſcopal Act; but conſcious there was nothing wrong in the Proceeding which they cenſure, they prudently waive the legal Method of Redreſs, and have Recourſe to the low Arts of Slander and Defamation.

MR. W. as well as other private People, may have heard of Perſons that deſerve the Gallows; why ſhould he not, without applying for a Warrant, or obſerving any any Form of Law, write a Penny Poſt Letter to the Lord Chief Juſtice, or ſome of the Judges, to order the Criminals to immediate Execution; and if his Letter be not obeyed, print it, and perhaps a Picture formed upon it, for the publick Entertainment; that the World may ſee what excellent Advice Mr. W. is favoured with in Civil, as well as Eccleſiaſtical Caſes, and how well ſome People, who think themſelves mighty wiſe, are qualified to dictate to their Superiors, and cenſure their Conduct? But, as they have ſo happy a Knack at ſuppoſing, 'tis juſt as eaſy to ſuppoſe Law, as to ſuppoſe the Innocence of their new Friend and Ally the ingenious Author of the Diſſertation upon Parties.

Dublin, November 11.

LAST Sunday the Right Rev. Dr. Rundall, Lord Biſhop of Derry, preached a moſt excellent Charity Sermon at St. Warborough's Church: There was 52 l. collected, which Money is to be applied for the Support of the poor Boys educated in that Pariſh.

Yeſterday, upon a Motion of Mr. Attorney General, and Mr. Solicitor General, his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench was pleaſed to make a Rule, niſi Cauſa, againſt Mr. Joſeph Gibſon, for uſurping and exerciſing the Office of Maſter of the Corporation of Butchers in this City.

W hear that a Man about 18 Inches high, covered with ſtrong Hair, but otherwiſe naked, was taken in a Field near Longford, by a Farmer of that Country. The little Gentleman, upon being ſeized, demanded to know why he ſhould be ſtopped or interrupted in purſuing his lawful Occaſions, for that he was travelling to the North, with Intent to paſs over to Scotland. All Intreaties, it ſeems, were not forcible enough to procure him his Liberty, ſince we hear the Farmer has provided a Box, in order to bring him to Town in. He ſpeaks good Iriſh, and mimicks Engliſh, as it is commonly ſpoken by the Beaux.

Laſt Saturday Michael Kelly, William Kelly, and Andrew Hollagan, three of the Kevin-ſtreet Rioters, where whipt from New-Market on the Coomb to Kevin-ſtreet End, and back again to the Watch-houſe: They were whipt ſeparately, ſo that the Hangman had little Interruption in the Execution of his Office; nor had he much Room to ſhew Partiality, ſo that without doubt they had Juſtice done them.

It was not the Boyne Club, but the Hanover Club, who gave the Entertainment at the Tholſel, on the Anniverſary of the late King William's Birth-Day.

On Saturday laſt an Appeal was lodged in the Court of King's-Bench, againſt Thomas Powell, of the County of Limerick, by the Widow Ivers, for the Murder of her Husband, Mr. Henry Ivers; and Mr. Powell was ordered into the Cuſtody of the Four Court Marſhal.

We hear from Clonmell, that on Saturday Night laſt the Poll for an Election of a Knight of the Shire for the County of Tiperary ſtood thus;

For Joſeph Damer, Eſq;	296
For James Dawſon, Eſq;	295

Edinburgh, Nov. 13. Monday laſt came on before the High Court of Admiralty, the Trial of Mr. Duncan Grant, Merchant in Inverneſs, John Macdonald, Meſſenger there, —— Macinven and —— Macrae, Aſſiſtants to the ſaid Meſſenger, (who were Witneſſes on the Trial of Thomas Macadams, Centinel, and James Long, Corporal, of Col. Hamilton's Regiment;) on an Indictment of Felony, as Invaders and Deforcers of his Majeſty's Cuſtomhouſe Boat in the Murray Frith, when Mr. Frazer, Jun. of Belnain was killed: And after Debate, Parties were ordered to Inform, and the Trial put off to Monday next.

On Tueſday came on before the High Court of Juſticiary, a Suſpenſion of the Sentence of Death pronounced by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, againſt Macadams and Long aforeſaid; and their Lordſhips Suſpended Execution of the ſaid Sentence till the Firſt Day of December next, that the Caſe may be then more fully heard before their Lordſhips: And we hear this Suſpenſion will accordingly be this Day intimated to the Magiſtrates of this City. And, Yeſterday, betwixt 10 and 11 in the Forenoon, the Judge-Admiral, judging his Sentence not liable to a Review by any Court, ſent to the Four Bailies of this City (in preſence of the Lord Provoſt and Counſellors, in Council aſſembled) a Dead Warrant ſigned by his Lordſhip, Requiring and Commanding them, as they will be anſwerable at their higheſt Perils, to ſee the Sentence of Death put in Execution upon the aforeſaid Macadams and Long, on Wedneſday next the 19th Inſtant, within the Flood mark near Leith, in the Terms of his Lordſhip's Sentence ſuſpended as aforeſaid.

Yeſterday Mr. Patrick Haldane, Advocate, was elected one of the Aſſeſſors to the Magiſtrates of this City, in the room of Mr. John Forbes of Newhall, deceaſed.

This Morning died Anthony Norman, Eſq; Deputy Comptroller of the Cuſtoms.

LONDON.

Yeſterday came in a Mail from France, with Letters which ſay, That notwithſtanding the Suſpenſion of Arms betwixt the Troops of the Emperor and France, yet the French and Spaniards in Italy, which remain in the Venetian Dominions to guard the Banks of the Adige, have agreed to give each other mutual Aſſiſtance, in caſe the Imperialiſts make any Attempt to paſs that River.

There are ſome who ſolve this Contradiction, by obſerving, that France being only an Auxiliary to Spain and Piedmont, could not bargain for a Suſpenſion in Italy; and that the moſt ſhe can do in the preſent Caſe, is to withdraw her Troops from that Country.

The Paris Letter, which is dated the 26th Inſt. N. S. ſays, That the Count de Montijo, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, who was late at this Court, is arrived there from Holland, and has taken up his Lodgings at the Houſe of the Spaniſh Miniſter.

Laſt Night the Hon. Henry Berkeley, Eſq; (Brother to the Right Hon. the Earl of Berkeley) Gentleman of the Horſe, and one of the Equerries to his Majeſty, and Captain and Colonel of the ſecond Troop of Grenadier Guards, lay very dangerouſly ill at his Houſe in Hedge-Lane, Charing-Croſs.

Yeſterday died at her Mother's Houſe in Saville-Row, Miſs Frederick, Daughter of the late Sir Tho. Frederick, Bart.

Bulſtrode Peachy Knight, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Midhurſt, is dangerouſly ill of the Gout and Dropſy, at his Houſe in Dean-ſtreet, Soho.

The Lady Foley lies at the Point of Death, at her Houſe in Hanover Square.

They tell us of a very whimſical Game at Cards that was play'd ſome Days ago, at the Sign of the Salmon at Cheſter-le-ſtreet, near Newcaſtle-upon-Tine. The Stake was no leſs than a Child of one James and Elizabeth Leeſh of that Town, againſt four Shillings laid by four Men of the ſame Place, who won the Child, which was delivered to them as ſoon as the Game was out.

Yeſterday Morning between 7 and 8 o'Clock Mr. Savage, coming from his Houſe at Fulham to London, was attacked between Fulham and Parſons Green by a ſingle Highwayman, who robbed him of his Money and a Silver Watch, and made off towards Parſons Green.

Major General Sutton continues dangerouſly ill of the Dropſy, at his Seat in Nottinghamſhire.

Laſt Tueſday Night the Counteſs of Stamford, and her Son the Lord Grey, arrived, with a numerous Retinue, at her Ladyſhip's Houſe in Jermain-Street, from Bruſſels; and in a few Days the ſaid Lord Grey is to be married to the Lady Mary Booth, only Daughter to the Earl of Warrington, the Marriage Articles being already ſigned by both Parties.
